

There's Always Something Blooming in Greenwood, SC

Featured Full Day Itinerary

- 9:00 a.m.—Tour of Ninety Six National Historic Site
- 10:00 a.m.—Agritourism comes alive with the animals and gardens at Emerald Farm
- 11:00 a.m.—“All Aboard!” Explore the semi-formal gardens surrounding 7 vintage train cars at the Railroad Historical Center
- 12:00 p.m.—Walk the tree-lined streets and break for lunch in one of Uptown Greenwood's restaurants
- 1:30 p.m.—The arts are in full bloom in the Emerald Triangle, tour the Arts Center, Theatre, and The Museum
- 2:45 p.m.—Discover Park Seed's famous 9-acre Trial Gardens
- 4:00 p.m.—Want to take a piece of Park Seed home with you? Be sure to shop the Jackson & Perkins outlet store!

Escape to Greenwood, SC, where there's always something blooming. Discover the extraordinary trial gardens at world famous Park Seed Company and the blooming Emerald Triangle Cultural Arts District. Arts and history are flourishing with art galleries, theatre productions, and museums located in beautiful Uptown Greenwood. Come any time of year to tour a Revolutionary War battlefield and shop amid the tree-lined streets in a community that is always planting something new for you to do.

GREENWOOD
REGIONAL TOURISM & VISITORS BUREAU

Uptown Greenwood

Park Seed Gardens

What's blooming in Summer in Greenwood?

Sunflower

Rose

Day Lily

www.visitgreenwoodsc.com

Additional Blooming Itineraries

Want to experience some more unique attractions in Greenwood? Check out this 2nd day itinerary!

If you plan to stay with us, be sure to catch one of Greenwood Community Theatre's fabulous productions while you're here!

Living History Itinerary

10:00 a.m.— Tour historic Magnolia Cemetery and the old Greenwood Cemetery
11:45 a.m.—Enjoy a delicious lunch at one Uptown Greenwood's restaurants
1:00 p.m.—Travel scenic Highway 72 into the historic Abbeville Square where you will find antique shops, old-fashioned ice cream shop, and the historic Abbeville Opera House.

Half day Cultural Arts Itinerary

- 9:00 a.m.—Take a stroll down Historic Main Street (circa early 19th century) at the newly renovated Museum
- 9:45 a.m.—Go behind the scenes at the Greenwood Community Theatre
- 10:15 a.m.—View one of the many exhibits at the Arts Center and browse through the Gallery Shop at the Federal Building
- 11:00 a.m.—Enjoy the view of historic buildings as you walk down to Meridian!, featuring 12 art studios and the Hands Studio & Gallery
- 11:30 a.m.—Next door to Meridian!, you will find Sundance Galleries and the studio of internationally recognized photographer, Jon O. Holloway
- 12:00 p.m.—Break for lunch in Uptown Greenwood

If it's BBQ and Blues you want, visit Greenwood in July of 2009 for the SC Festival of Discovery! www.uptowngreenwood.com

Plan your group tour during the SC Festival of Flowers in June of 2009. For more information, go to www.scfestivalofflowers.org for a schedule of events during the month-long flower festival!

GREENWOOD
REGIONAL TOURISM & VISITORS BUREAU

For all of your group tour needs, contact Lindsay Burns toll free at 1.866.493.8474 or lindsay.burns@cityofgreenwoodsc.com. Please note that some of the above tours are not available year-round.